Members are advised that the House will only consider debate of H.R. 5781 today. Votes on the motion to recommit and passage of the bill will occur tomorrow.

H.R. 5781 – California Emergency Drought Relief Act of 2014 (Rep. Valadao – Natural Resources) (One Hour of Debate). This bill would create a number of directives for the federal agencies that manage California’s Central Valley water project. The bill is aimed at increasing the availability of water for the state’s agricultural, municipal and industrial users, by requiring that more water is pumped south to users in the San Joaquin Valley. The bill would also require the Interior and Commerce departments to approve any emergency projects or operations that would quickly provide additional water to users in the San Joaquin Valley.

The Rule, which was adopted on December 4, provides for a Closed Rule and one hour of debate.

The Daily Quote

"Mr. Cruz has encouraged House Republicans to oppose Speaker John Boehner 's plan to fund the government beyond Thursday unless it also blocks President Barack Obama 's immigration initiative.... It is reminiscent of the fight Mr. Cruz and his conservative allies led a year ago to cut off funding for the 2010 health-care law. That effort failed and led to a partial government shutdown many voters blamed on Republicans."
